

RELEASE TO USE UNSECURED EMAILS AND TEXTS

The use of emails, texts and cell phones are not a secure resource for sending messages to Faith Donaldson.

I, _____ willingly choose to leave occasional messages to Faith Donaldson through email, texts and cell phones and will not hold Faith Donaldson liable or responsible for any emails, texts or cell phone communication that risk unintended discovery because they were intercepted, hacked, stolen, or seen by another person as a result of such events. This includes any and all responses to emails or texts from Faith Donaldson to me.

In the event emails, texts or cell phone calls between myself and Faith Donaldson are intercepted, hacked or stolen, I will not view this as a breach in the confidence agreement that Faith Donaldson is bound to with me. I will not file a complaint against Faith Donaldson for any such breach as a result of unintended discovery in emails, texts or cell phone calls that could be intercepted, hacked, stolen or seen by another person.

I choose to use email, text, and cell phone use for the purpose of convenience and for my therapeutic benefit.

This is binding for the duration of treatment between Faith Donaldson and

_____.
